

SPECIAL SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS

The School Board may hold special meetings when necessary. These meetings shall be held when called by the chairman or when requested by two or more members.¹ Special meetings may be called provided each member is duly notified, or a reasonable attempt has been made to notify each member. Notice, reasonable under the circumstances, shall be given contemporaneously with the notice provided to members of the School Board.

Business that does not come within the purposes set forth in the call of the meeting shall not be transacted at any special meeting of the School Board unless the members present unanimously agree to consider additional items of business.

¹ Virginia law does not specify who may call a special meeting. Instead, it specifies that each school board shall specify its own procedure for calling and holding such meetings. Thus, if your Board prefers to specify a different method by which special meetings can be called, it may do so.
